Office Action Summary

Receipt is acknowledged of Reconsideration of 6/13/02.

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claims 1, 4, 6, 8, 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Cho et al JP 63236847.

The rejection of record is maintained.

Applicant's arguments filed 6/3/02 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant's arguments are the examples do not anticipate, and actives are not in saliva-soluble form, as chewing is required.

Examiner notes the previous incantation of claim 1 required both chewing and saliva-soluble form: absent any claim language to the means for providing saliva-soluble in the composition, we see no difference between the instant invention and Cho's. However, examiner uses the whole reference—it's true that neither example provides all elements instant claimed; but the two do.

Claims 1, 3-8, 10-13 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 1 of U.S. Patent No. 6074662. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the patent meets the base claims of the instant invention, providing the antimicrobial composition on saliva soluble form, in the instant claim 13 rawhide chew. Thus, it is prima facie obvious.

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
